

Data collection

In order to collect better information, we need to search and explore neighborhoods data of those two cities from Foursquare API. We will choose one of neighborhoods from each city: Manhattan from New York and Downtown from Toronto, and focus on to restaurants, coffee shops and entertainment venues. We will explore neighborhoods, segment them, and group them into clusters, and analyze the neighborhood data to find the best of location to open the restaurant.